MEN'S GLEE CLUB IN WESTERN KENTUCKY ON ANNUAL CONCERT TOUR

Prof. Lampert and 18 Men Left Monday for Week's Trip

TO VISIT SIX CITIES

Students to Hear "Warblers" Wednesday Night

The Men's Glee Club, under the direction of Prof. Carl Lampert, is on its annual concert tour this week. The tour opened at Eminence, Monday night, and closes at Owensboro, tomorrow night. The Club will render the same program that is being given on the trip, in chapel next Wednesday night.

The Glee Club, this year, is the best that ever represented the University, and its tour will be a big boost for the institution. The complete itinerary for the week follows: Monday, Eminence; Tuesday, Louisville; Wednesday, Madisonville; Thursday, Morganfield; Friday, Hopkinsville; Saturday, Owensboro.

The men making the trip are: First tenor: Aurny E. Bell, John Dahringer, Robert Clem, Carroll Carter; second tenor: Jesse Hawkins, Duerson Fendley, Neville Finckel, Silas Wilson, John Currey; first bass, Rothwell Woodward, Neal Sullivan, Raymond Craig, Thomas Riley, Earl Baughman; second bass: Robert Porter, John Lewis, Elbert DeCoursey, Crawford Anderson. Prof. C. A. Lampert, director.

ACTOR IN "LIGHTNIN'" SPEAKS TO STUDENTS

Strollers Meet Milton Nobles at Opera House After Wednesday Matinee

Stuart Fox, who plays the part of John Marvin in "Lightnin'," gave two readings and some valuable advice to the Strollers in the Little Theatre at the fifth period, Wednesday. Mr. Seymour, his understudy, accompanied him.

Mr. Fox advised those intending to go on the legitimate stage that funds and experience were by far the most important factors in procuring a part. He concluded his talk by giving a reading from "Madame X," the longest speech of modern drama, and a humorous parody on the first chapter of Genesis.

A number of Strollers accepted the invitation to meet "Lightnin' Bill" Jones, played by Milton Nobles, after the matinee Wednesday, at the Opera House.

Ecology Class Members Spend Day in Country

The members of the Ecology class, with Dr. C. A. Shull, made a trip to Elk Lick Falls, Sunday, April 11, despite the snow and cold the twenty-six mile ride in the University truck, the dinner cooked under the most primitive conditions, and the day spent in the wilds of the Kentucky cliffs and caves was an ideal experience, highly instructive and thoroughly enjoyed by all who participated.

PLEDGES ANNOUNCED

Delta Sigma Pi, professional fraternity in Commerce, announces the following pledges: Harold F. Waites, '22, Cynthiana; George H. Gregory, '21, Lexington; Tolliver Anderson, '23, Hopkinsville; Joe T. Lovett, '22 Benton; Hinton Leach, '23, Lexington.

FROSH AND SOPHS TIE IN OPENING GAME

The first of the interclass games, between the Sophs and Frosh, ended a tie, 2 to 2. It was fast and very exciting all the way through and a large number of students who were strongly partisan in their views backed their respective teams to the fullest of their ability.

The batteries for the Frosh were: Gillespie and VanArsdale, for the Sophs, Hays and Pribbie.

"Daddy" Boles, out of the higness of his heart and pocketbook has offered a silver loving cup to the winning team, and all teams are working hard for the trophy.

PHILISOPHIAN PLAY TO BE GIVEN APRIL 21

Little Theatre Tickets May Be Used For "The Amazons"

The Philisophian Literary Society will present "The Amazons," Pinero's clever comedy, Thursday, April 21 in the chapel. With the splendid cast under the direction of Prof. Mikesell, this play will be the best ever given by Philisophian.

Lucy Smith, Henrietta Rogers, and Margaret Harblson, the Amazons first appear as three attractive young gallsants Willie, Tommie, and Noel respectively. They have been brought up by their mother, the charming but dictatorial Marchioness of Castle Jordan who is played by Claribel Kay, as athletic man-hating young women. They desert their principles however for the attractive Litterley, Tween-aways, and De Grival played by Fred Houston-Shaw, John Land and Jack Derringer respectively.

John Land is splendid as the typical Englishman, Tweenie while Jack Derringer as Count De Grival and Fred Houston-Shaw as Litterley show unusual dramatic ability. The three amazonian sisters are charmingly interpreted by Henrietta Rogers, Margaret Harblson, and Lucy Smith. Claribel Kay is unusually good as the Marchioness. Lillian Dalton's role of Sergeant Shuter gives full scope to her enthusiasm and pep. Wiedekemper as the Rev. Minchin, Bamber as Fitton the gamekeeper, Swerringer as Youatt a servant, and Rouse as Orts, a poacher, are well cast.

Little Theatre season tickets may be used for admittance to this play. Single seats are 75 cents.

Agr. College Adds Two Angus Steers to Herd

The College of Agriculture added two pure bred Angus steers to its herd, last week, after visiting the Bradshaw herd near Danville. A two-months' old animal was purchased by the College, and Mr. Bradshaw made them a present of another, a yearling.

Dean Thomas P. Cooper, Professor Good, W. J. Harris, of the Animal Husbandry Department, and Senator H. M. Frohman composed the party which visited the farm of A. D. Bradshaw.

Professor Good says that the selections made are two of the finest animals in the herd, which is headed by a famous sire.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES

PINEVILLE WANTS THE STROLLERS TO RETURN WITH NEXT PRODUCTION

Commendatory Letter Contains Invitation to Come Back with '22 Play

P. T. ATKINS WRITES

Strollers Told to Name Own Terms

The Strollers have received from Presley T. Atkins, of Pineville, a letter of appreciation concerning the recent visit of that organization and the University band to Bell county in which appear the following gratifying excerpts:

"The proverbial village knocker has not been around and not one single word but the highest praise has been heard regarding your troop and band, and what they had to offer here. You took the town by storm and the Strollers can have anything they want up here, from a slice of the Cumberland river to a cross section of Pine Mountain. Just name your terms and we will comply. I am all 'swelled' up with pride because of the whole thing and even the small part I had in it. We are prepared right now to insist that you bring the whole 'gang' back next year, and we want your answer right now. I am writing the same information to Doctor McVey, and want it settled so that we may begin advertising at once.

We are serious about the Strollers for next year and you know the people here want you. So please put this invitation up to the club, and let us have the answer. We won't take NO."

MELCHER AT CONVENTION

Dean C. R. Melcher left Wednesday for Iowa City, Iowa, where he will attend a meeting of the Deans of Men of the American Colleges, which will be held at the University of Iowa, April 14, 15 and 16.

UNIVERSITY TO HAVE A STUDENT COUNCIL

Mervin Eblen Represents Kentucky at Mid-West Conference

Mervin Eblen, who represented the University of Kentucky at the Mid-West Conference held at the University of Missouri, returned on Monday and as a result of the conference a Student Council will be organized at the University. There has been much talk of organizing a student council at the University but it was not definitely decided upon until Eblen returned. The organization is expected to be perfected in about two weeks.

It is planned to have the Student Council composed of four seniors, three juniors, two sophomores and one freshman. The body will take care of all student activities. Dance dates and other matters now controlled by the Dean of Men will be taken care of by the council. The officers will include a president, vice-president and secretary-treasurer, the president to be elected by the student body.

The conference at Missouri April 7, 8 and 9 was held in order that colleges or universities, having student councils or hoping to have, might get together and work out problems pertaining to student government. A permanent organization was formed with Francis K. Zimmerman, of the University of Chicago, President. Twenty-two of the leading institutions of the country were represented.

Eblen obtained much information regarding student government and as soon as plans are worked out the council will be formed.

TRACK SQUAD MEETS TENNESSEE SATURDAY

Coach Buchheit has his men ready for the invasion of the Tennessee track bunch, Saturday afternoon, on Stoll field.

Most of the men have recovered from their injuries which held them back in the meet with Vandy and they are expecting to put our opponents through the mill.

Little is known of the incoming wearers of whatnot, for as yet they have not met this season, but they usually turn out one of the best squads in the South. The meet is called at 2:30 o'clock.

CINCINNATI WINS SLOW GAME ON STOLL FIELD

Two Hits Made by Blue and White Off Roth, Queen City Hurler

March returned yesterday. A cold wind swept over Stoll Field and with it swept the hopes of the Wildcat ball-players. Just an off day characterized the situation of the Kentucky players.

Two hits and no runs were all that could be gathered by the Blue and White off Roth, the Queen City twirler. Meanwhile, the lads of the University of Cincinnati knocked out thirteen hits and the same number of runs.

Both teams were not up to mid-season form, but Kentucky just could not swat the ball. The hits off Cooper and McKinney came at opportune times and helped by bad fielding, the medical team put across their 13 runs. The score:

Cincinnati	13	13	3
Kentucky	0	2	3

Batteries: University of Cincinnati, Roth and Sharpe; Kentucky, Cooper, McKinney and Baugh.

SIGMA NU FRATERNITY HOUSE IS COMPLETED

Gamma Iota chapter of Sigma Nu, will move into their new fraternity house in Winslow street by Saturday. It is the first house to be erected on fraternity row. The structure is of the English Stratford style of architecture and will hold thirty boys and has every modern equipment from the kitchen to the billiard room and study hall. It was built as a memorial to Harold Pullman, who was killed in an aeroplane accident during the war.

The Sigma Nus expect to have a formal opening of the house the first of May.

Y. W. CABINET HOLDS ITS SPRING COUNCIL

Dr. Fortune and Dr. Allen K. Foster Are Speakers

Sunday was the second day of the Spring Cabinet Training Council held in Lexington, last week-end, with headquarters at Patterson Hall. The afternoon meeting took place at 2:30 o'clock. During the first hour, Dr. A. W. Fortune, of Transylvania, took charge, and his subject was "Bible Study." At 3:30 o'clock the meeting was thrown open, and Dr. Allen K. Foster spoke for the second time before the Council on the subject of "Prayer."

At 6:15 p.m., the delegates and the members of the local cabinets were entertained with a supper at the City Y. W. C. A. At 7:30 p.m., in the club rooms of the City Y. W. C. A., Doctor Foster gave his third and last talk to the Council. This hour was given over entirely to the answering of various questions asked by the girls. Miss Katherine Haley, of Berea, sang several songs at the end of Doctor Foster's hour. This meeting marked the end of the Spring Cabinet Training Council.

UNIVERSITY SENATE GRANTS CHARTER TO HONORARY SOCIETY

Meeting of Executive Body Held in the Little Theatre Monday

ACCEPT REGULATIONS

Recommendations of Kentucky College Assn. Accepted

The granting of a charter to Epsilon Beta Phi, a local honorary society of the College of Arts and Sciences, and the approval of the recommendations of the Association of Kentucky Colleges and Universities, was the most important business transacted by the University Senate at its meeting Monday afternoon, April 11.

The charter members of Epsilon Beta Phi, to which a charter was granted, are the members of Phi Beta Kappa who are members of the University of Kentucky faculty.

Only seniors in the College of Arts and Sciences who have a general standing of 2.6 and no D's or E's are eligible. But not more than ten per cent of the class can be admitted into the society. Members of the present senior class are eligible and will be taken in some time previous to commencement. It is the intention of the society to apply for a National chapter of the Phi Beta Kappa honorary fraternity. The charter members of the Epsilon Beta Phi are: Dr. Frank L. MeVey, Professors G. Terril, J. J. Tigert, S. E. Leland, C. J. Humphrey's, C. A. Shull and C. B. Williams.

"CRICHTON" TO PLAY WINCHESTER TONIGHT

Strollers "On Tour" Again; Make Trip by Automobile

The Strollers, accompanied by the University Orchestra under the direction of Mrs. Carl Lampert, will present "The Admirable Crichton" at the Winchester Opera House in Winchester, tonight.

The play will be given in Winchester under the auspices of the Kiwanis Club of that city. Marcus C. Redwine, Winchester attorney, and an alumnus of the University of Kentucky, has been instrumental in having the play presented at Winchester. The trip will be made by automobile, the company leaving Lexington at 4:00 p.m. and returning tonight after the play.

Dean Cooper Visiting Eastern Alumni Clubs

Will Address the New York Association Today

Following a plan arranged by the General Alumni Association to keep graduates of the University in touch with the activities, Dean Thomas P. Cooper, director of the Kentucky Agricultural Experiment Station, left Saturday afternoon for a trip to the East, where he is speaking this week to three University of Kentucky Alumni Associations.

On April 11, Dean Cooper addressed the association in Philadelphia, and today will address the New York Association. The date of the meeting of the Washington Alumni was not known when Dean Cooper left. While in Washington he will also attend a meeting of the United States Department of Agriculture and a meeting called by the Federal government for the purpose of discussing the tobacco grading system now being worked out.

KILL THAT JINX!

It is human nature to love and applaud the victor. Those who attain success find about them an adoring throng of admirers, who feed their vanity and make extravagant avowals of friendship. But adversity usually dispels the host and defeat tests the metal of loyalty and devotion.

It is easy to support a winning athletic team. Victory attracts like a powerful magnet. The hearty and enthusiastic support which the student body of the University of Kentucky gave the basketball team which proved itself the undisputed champion of Southern basketball was so obvious that student loyalty to the athletic teams which represent the University appeared undisputable.

The wonderful quintet which brought fame and honor to the University is a matter of athletic history. We are well into the baseball season, represented by a team that is obviously not of championship caliber. But the men on the team and the coach are exerting every effort to produce a winning team. We assert that the baseball team is in greater need of the undivided support of the student body than was the championship basketball team.

The tendency to withhold support from a losing team was quite manifest at the Michigan game. After playing air-tight ball for three innings, a series of errors and unfortunate breaks gave Michigan a lead which there was slight chance of overcoming. As the possibility of victory became more remote the spectators began leaving until the bleachers were almost empty when the last out was made.

At the Cincinnati game Thursday the "stickers out" were even fewer, and when the last play was made there remained on the Stoll Field only a handful of the large number in attendance at the beginning of the game, — a small band, but true.

The support which a student body gives a losing team is the acid test of loyalty, and in that support is reflected the genuine spirit of the student body. It is the losing team which needs the encouragement which loyal student support gives. The members of the baseball team should be made to feel that their efforts are appreciated by their fellow-students and that in defeat as well as victory the University of Kentucky accords them that support which is born of intense loyalty.

Once upon a time there was a great state which gave its university all the money it needed.

Moral: This is only a fable.

And just as we had got our watch and alarm clock set five minutes fast in sympathy, harmony and perfect understanding with the $14,000 University clocks, lo! and behold! they reverse and put us eight minutes slow.

"Crichton" Shows True Finish," says a headline. Which only goes to show that all things, even the best, must come to an end.

GREATER INTEREST IS SHOWN IN AG. SOCIETY

Large Attendance at Meeting, Monday Night

Increased interest in the Ag. Society was shown by the large attendance at the meeting held Monday night, April 11, in the Ag. building.

The program follows: "Ag. Society at the University of Alabama," by J. D. Foster; "Ag. Society at the University of Mississippi," by Casey Smith; "County Agent Work in Kentucky," by Charles Taylor, county agent for Hopkins County for six years, now taking advanced work at the University, and "A Successful Dairy Farm," by R. R. Robbins. The program was closed with a reading by Miss Rouse, of the Art Department of Transylvania College.

The program was followed by a short business meeting during which plans for a party to be held in the near future were discussed. Three new members, Reynolds Bell, Strauter Harney and Joe Broderick, were taken in.

THAT SENTENCE

They were going home from school. "Teacher said that that that that girl used was superfluous."

"Here's the first pupil for my stammering school," said the business man as he introduced himself.—Mass. Ag. Squib.

Department Clubs

The Patterson Literary Society met last Friday night in the Little Theater. One of the most delightful meetings of the year was held. The Oratorical Contest which was to have been held that night was postponed at the request of Professor Mikesell, and will be given in the chapel, later. In order not to disappoint the members who had come out, it was decided to give an impromptu program. The president called on different members, either suggesting a subject or permitting them to speak on any subject they chose.

Short talks were given by R. T. Johnston, F. P. Bell, E. E. Siler, A. W. Armentrout, W. H. Peal and V. C. Swearingen.

YOU HAVE WRITTEN POEMS!

Do you care to have them revised or constructively criticised by successful authors? If you do, then send us your manuscripts (stories, articles or poems). We will criticise, and place them should they prove to be acceptable for publication.

There is no actual charge for our services. If, however, you have not previously enrolled with the advisory department of this association, we request that you enclose the initial fee of two dollars, which we must ask of each new contributor. There is no additional expense, no future obligation.

It must be realized that we can only be of aid to those of serious intent. If you do mean to strive for literary success we can help you in many ways. Our services are yours until we have actually succeeded in marketing at least one of your manuscripts. Send something today!

Please enclose return postage with your communications.

POLITICAL ANNOUNCEMENT

GEORGE R. SMITH

For the first time in the history of the University of Kentucky one of her graduates seeks the office of Commonwealth's Attorney for Fayette County.

The University has not grown, in the past, with the strides which have marked the progress of many of her sister institutions. One reason for this has been due to the failure of our university to exhibit a genuine interest and concern in the welfare of her graduates — an interest so strikingly noticeable in the policies of other institutions in the state, whose graduates, in turn, have striven for the upbuilding of their alma maters, but whose regard for the University of Kentucky is secondary.

I assure you that I have the interest of the University at heart, and I request, and will greatly appreciate, the consideration and loyal support of university men and women, and of the alumni. The results of my candidacy, as I sincerely believe and intend, will accrue to the mutual advantage of us all.

PRES. McVEY SPEAKS AT TUESDAY CHAPEL

Supt. Colvin Scheduled to Speak But Unable to be Present

"Character, cash, interest in life, and content and happiness are the four things that are most important and for which we should all strive," said President McVey at chapel, Tuesday. Mr. Colvin, Superintendent of Public Instruction, who was to have spoken, was unable to be present on account of illness in the family.

President McVey said in part: "Character comes as a by-product, as a consequence to the things that we do every day, or as a result of habit. It is during the adolescent period that if the character we have not gained then we have probably lost forever. During that time our whole process of thinking is being fundamentally determined. Character is the ability to stand in life's battle, to meet it bravely, cheerfully and forcefully. Cash is that which makes it possible for us to do more effectually the thing we have set out to do in life. Our interest in life depends upon both our avocation, which is a means of expressing ourselves aside from our work, and upon our occupation to which we employ ourselves in order to maintain our economic interests. Happiness and contentment come only from within and with the knowledge of work well done. One of the hardest things in life is to be a real college student who strives and succeeds in obtaining the fundamentals of correct living."

Jack: "Er-a-may I call you by your first name?"

Jill: "By your last name, if you wish."

Oh, boy!

A nice old lady said to the Ag. student she had engaged as gardener during the summer vacation:

"My boy, I wonder that you don't get married. You know that the first gardener that ever lived had a wife."

"Yes'm, he did," replied Hiram, "but the first thing his wife did was to get him fired."

"Tubby, aren't you losing flesh, lately?"

"Yep; I bought a safety razor."

Stude: "Say, professor, I took a walk in the country today and I saw a garter snake a yard long!"

Doctor Funkhouser: "Garter snakes do not reach that length."

Stude: "Well, I thought it was a garter snake because it was wrapped around the limb of a tree."

EVERYBODY OUT!

Coach George Buchheit is working for a championship track team as he did for a championship basketball squad, and the entire student body is expected to give 'em that old "up and at 'em" and that old "knock 'em off" and that old "let 'em eat your dust" spirit. Everybody OUT tomorrow!

Bring your "devinity" at 2:30 o'clock and let her look at 'em, too. Don't be a razorback!

Kentucky is going to put it on Tennessee.

Doctor McVey Will Speak At Educational Meeting

President Frank L. McVey will attend the annual meeting of the Kentucky Educational Association to be held at Louisville, April 19 to 22. This year the Association is trying to make the session the most successful ever held and is striving for one hundred per cent attendance. Seventy-nine faculty members of the University of Kentucky are members of the Association. Doctor McVey will address the general meeting Thursday afternoon. His subject will be "The American Highway in Education."

K. D. CHAPTERIAN WILL RETURN NEXT MONTH

Sarah Blue, National Chapterian of the Kappa Delta sorority, who has been a guest at the Kappa Delta house for the last few days, left Monday for Texas, where she has gone to install a new chapter at the University of Texas.

During her stay she addressed the inter-fraternity house council at the regular meeting and suggested some very constructive ideas to aid the fraternity problem. She was scheduled to address the local Pan-Hellenic hut a satisfactory date could not be arranged. On her return in May she will address the local Pan-Hellenic in a body.

Miss Blue was the recipient of much social attention while here. Among the several affairs given in her honor were: a dinner at the Kappa Delta house at which representatives from each fraternity were present; a loyalty tea at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Steele, and several other social affairs.

Chi Omega Entertains For Grand Treasurer

Lambda Alpha Chapter of Chi Omega entertained with a tea from 4:00 to 6:00 o'clock, Friday afternoon, in honor of the fraternity's grand treasurer, Mrs. Vesta Lockwood Watson, Washington, D. C. A member of each fraternity was invited and all the patronesses of Lambda Alpha. The house was decorated in cardinal and straw tulips, and sandwiches and tea were served as refreshments.

Mrs. Watson was passing through Lexington on her way to Northwestern to inspect chapters in the West. While here she was a guest of Mrs. M. C. L. Collins, the grand president of Chi Omega.

RHODES SCHOLARSHIP BLANKS

Selection for a Rhodes Scholarship will be made by the state committee in October, 1921. The University of Kentucky may recommend four candidates to the state committee. Application blanks may be had from the President's office.
